

The Academy for College Admission Counseling provides exemplary state-of-the-profession information to individuals involved in college counseling. College Counseling 301 is the capstone course of our curriculum and focuses on advanced college counseling theory and practice. This class is open to counselors who have completed College Counseling 101 and 201.

Topics to be covered include:

- Ethical Implications of the College Search
- Decision-Making Theory
- Building the Student and College Profiles
- Advanced Issues in Financial Aid
- Colleges for the 2.0 Student
- Preparing for a College Counseling Appointment
- Dealing with High-Maintenance Parents
- Responsibilities in the College Search

Cost is $325 for this three-day program. Continental breakfast and lunch are included each day; each participant also receives a custom-designed binder with a complete college counseling curriculum included.

Dates for 301 are July 10-12 [Monday-Wednesday], 2017 at Elmhurst College; each day begins at 9:00 am and concludes by 3:30 pm.

Graduate Credit from Elmhurst College is also available at an additional fee of $600. Further information about this option will be mailed in June; separate payment for these credits will be due in June.

A total of 16.5 Professional Development units can be earned for completing College Counseling 301.
