

THE ACADEMY FOR COLLEGE ADMISSION COUNSELING
Presents Its Inaugural
SUMMER SOAPBOX
Tuesday, July 10, 2018, 9:00 – 2:30
Elmhurst College

Summertime...and the living is easy. Or it used to be. Our profession places more challenges on us than ever before; it's hard to know where we are and where we are going. We invite you to take one day out of your summer to join a group of leaders in our profession who will let you know what they think about our current state of affairs, and suggest where we should be heading.

Stepping up on our soapbox are:

Jon Boeckenstedt, Associate Vice President for Enrollment Management and Marketing,
DePaul University

Aliza Gilbert, College Counselor, Highland Park High School

Jerry Cebrzynski, Associate Vice President for Financial Aid, Lake Forest College

Each of our guests will share their views of today's hot topics in admission, no holds barred.

And then it will be your turn. You'll be able to join in on the discussion, asking any questions or sharing any opinions that will further advance the conversation.

Registration for this event is $75 and includes a continental breakfast and lunch. You will also be eligible for 5 ISBE Professional Development units through Elmhurst College.

Space is limited for this event, so register today! Join us at our Summer Soapbox.
